I will hold you responsible

When Cain killed Abel, he asked God, "Am I my brother's keeper?" God's answer is given through the prophet Ezekiel: a resounding "YES!" We are responsible for not only siblings but for anyone who is part of our life. If we are conscious that any of these people are doing something that will hurt themselves or others, God gives us a duty to give a warning. The more serious the sin, the more we have an obligation to speak or act. If a friend is about to drive in a drunken condition, we must try to take the keys or offer to drive. If anyone we know is tempted to suicide, we MUST do all in our power to prevent it. God warns us if we fail to take our obligations seriously. He will hold us guilty for the failure to warn others. This is not simply a pious thought, it is a serious duty! (Fr. Lonsdale Commentaries & Clip-Art)

Welcome back everyone!

Once again with a new school year begins a new season with many tasks ahead. We are grateful to have you back to celebrate the Eucharist with us. United in faith and love we can respond and serve God and one another in a Christian way. We extend our warmest greetings to the new members that have moved into our community over the summer months. If you are new to this parish, we wish to welcome you and hope that you find this to be a warm and caring community. Please make sure you register with the parish and introduce yourself to Father Frank. We are here to help and serve in any way we can.

Sunday school registration is now underway; it begins September 24th at the 10:00 am Sunday Mass in the Church basement hall, for children 3 – 7; they will gather for their own “Liturgy of the Word”. Registration forms are available on the cabinets at the main entrance of the Church. Sacramental preparation of 1st Holy Communion and Confirmation for the Public School Children will begin the first Saturday after Thanksgiving.

SANCTUARY LAMP

The Sanctuary Lamp for the Month of September
 Is sponsored by Nicoletta Leonelli
 In memory of:
 Anthony Di Carvalho

This week the Altar flowers next to the Holy Tabernacle were donated by Shirley Hernando on:
 “The Occasion of Logan Wong 7th Birthday”

Altar Flowers

Altar Flowers are a welcome offering to our worship. Flowers are alive. They are of God's creation. They are a fragrant offering to the God who created them. People give flowers in thanksgiving to God for a family member's birthday, wedding anniversary or other blessing. They are also given in memory of a departed loved one or friend. We give thanks to everyone who has already given flowers on a particular week or Sunday. Flower donation envelopes are located on the cabinets at the back of the church, or you can call the parish office and make arrangements. The minimum donation is $30.00.

Join the Choir

September is a great time to join the choir. Rehearsals for the 10:00 am choir are every Tuesday in the church from 7 to 8 pm beginning September 12th.
