I will send you another

Jesus did not want the apostles to remain dependent upon his physical presence. They would have to make their own way in the world. They had a destiny to fulfill as missionaries, spreading the faith to the world. At certain point Christ had to cut the apron strings. As he had said to Mary Magdalene on Easter,

"do not cling to me, but go and tell my brothers..." Now it was the apostles' turn to let go. But Jesus did not abandon them. He promised to send another "Paraclete"--a legal word implying a defender, a sort of barrister. This would be the Holy Spirit who would come a little over a week later on Pentecost. Jesus gave ample warning of his departure, but the reality of this farewell did not sink in until he finally ascended into heaven. (Lonsdale Commentaries & Clip Art)

Pope's Pastoral Works Collection May 24/25

The Pope's Pastoral Works collection was established by the bishops of Canada in 1970. The Papal Charities allow the Pope to contribute to various charitable causes around the world, particularly in aiding victims of war, famine and natural disasters. By contribution to the Pope's Pastoral works, the faithful of Canada give a universal dimension to their charity. Our second collection this weekend is for the Pope's Pastoral Works. Your generous contribution will be much appreciated.

Preghiera Sacerdotale

La Preghiera Sacerdotale è una preghiera che Gesù pronuncia dopo l'Ultima Cena, e rappresenta il suo testamento spirituale. Esprime un amore quasi viscerale verso i discepoli, quelli presenti e anche quelli futuri. Si trova nel capitolo 17 del Vangelo secondo Giovanni. È così chiamata sia per la sua collocazione all'inizio della storia della passione, sia per quanto affermato da Gesù stesso: "Per loro io consacro me stesso perché siano anch'essi consacrati nella verità" (Gv 17,19). Anche se non del tutto esatta, la denominazione di "preghiera sacerdotale" ne esprime abbastanza bene il contenuto, che è di offerta e di donazione radicale di se stesso a Dio e agli uomini.
